

MANGETOUT

ADVANTAGES OF MANGETOUT:

- Our own cultivation or product-specific support for cultivation on location
- Maximum quality guarantee, with an emphasis on food safety & freshness
- Optimal availability and shelf life
- New cultivation locations, such as Morocco and Ethiopia
- Exclusive varieties, including a shiny variety

AVAILABLE ALL YEAR ROUND

PACKAGING

- Packaging advice for increased shelf life
- Custom packaging, in consultation with the client
- Choice from regular, Growing Excellence or private label

Regular:

- 150 gram bag or punnet
- 200 gram bag or punnet
- 250 gram bag or punnet

Growing Excellence:

- 2 kg or 5 kg box, loose
- 150 gram bag or punnet
- 200 gram bag or punnet
- 250 gram bag or punnet

5 kilo box loose

2 kilo box loose

bag

punnet

Shiny variety in our product range:

Van Oers United uses their agronomic expertise for the selection of the right varieties suited to the climate and growing systems of each country. These exclusive varieties are shiny with a long shelf life and adhere to strict food-safety requirements.

Van Oers United Product Specialist:

Van Oers United proudly presents year round supply of mangetout. All aspects of the chain are under our control from seed to the delivery of a final product at the right temperature.

Features of Van Oers United:

- Our own production sites and exclusive partners
- Flexible planning of cultivation and harvesting due to private management
- Excellent logistical lines with extensive container transport
- A team of experts that focuses on product differentiation
- Many years of knowledge and experience with respect to the cultivation of beans

Further information:

+31 (0) 880 644 844 / www.vanoersunited.com

Sustainable cultivation:

We cultivate our mangetout with attention for their cultivation, our employees, packaging material and transport. Our cultivation of mangetout takes the local social, environmental and working circumstances into consideration. This is stressed in the signed IDH agreement in June 2012.